A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE FOR THE PAPERS

Here's a great exploitation stimulator for use in programs, throwaways and the columns of your local newsbapers. It's a Charlie Chaplin "City Lights" cross word puzzle with the name of the star and the picture worked right into the puzzle. Get your editors to run this interesting feature and offer free admissions to your theatre for all those solving the puzzle who submit the best ten word slogans for the paper or your theatre. As it is safe to assume pretty nearly everyone in town will see "City Lights," let your free tickets be for some attraction which is not likely to prove a sell-out.
